

aries

Aries has 6 stars.
The Latin name for Ram is Aries.
The head of Aries is called
Aluthay or Sakhay.
The head is made up of four stars.

Taurus

(the bull)

APRIL 20 – MAY 20

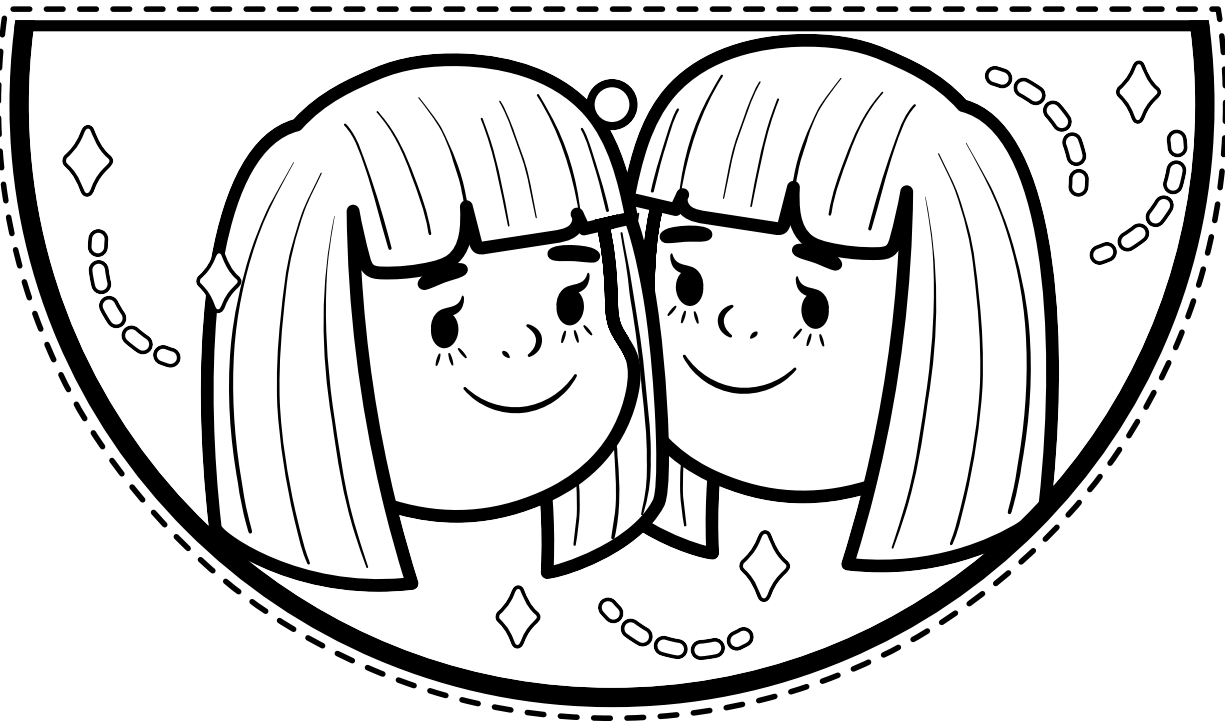

Taurus is the 17th largest constellation.

Taurus is the second zodiac sign.

The Latin name for Bull is Taurus.

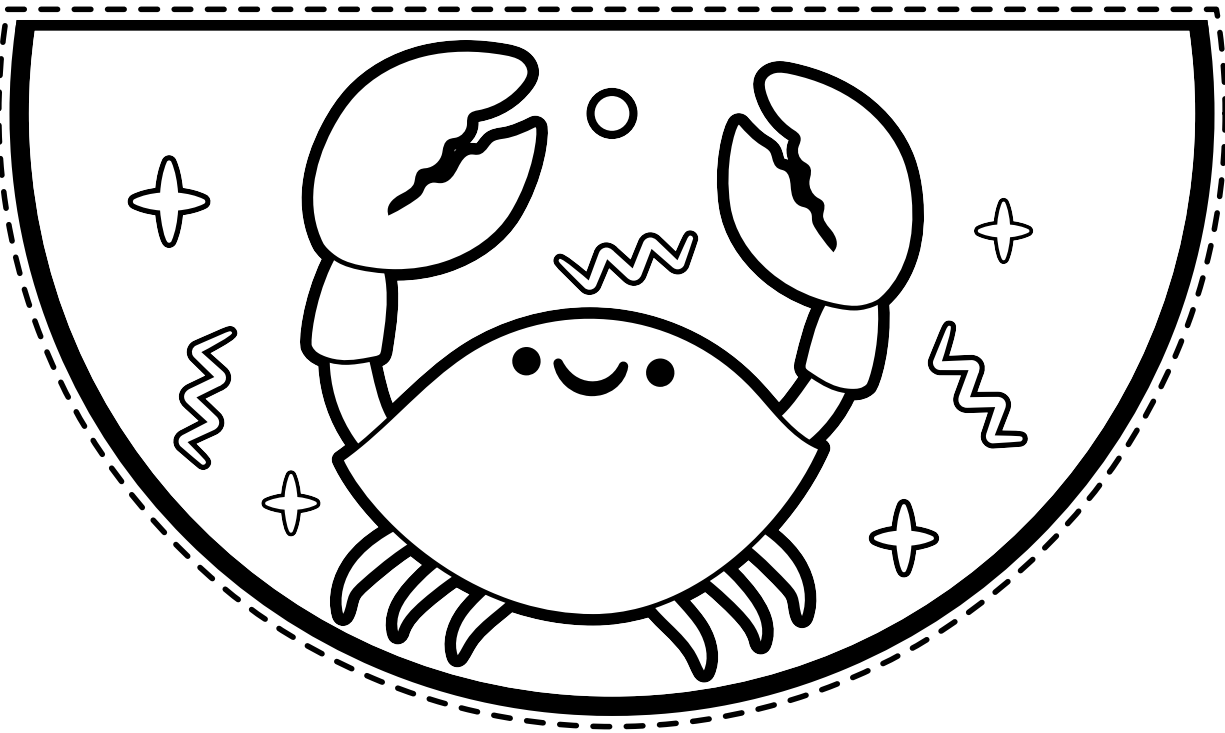

Taurus' brightest star is Aldebaran.

☆ gemini ☆
(the twins)
MAY 20 – JUNE 20

Gemini is the Latin name for twins.
The brightest star in Gemini is Pollux.
Pollux is the closest giant star to Earth.

Cancer

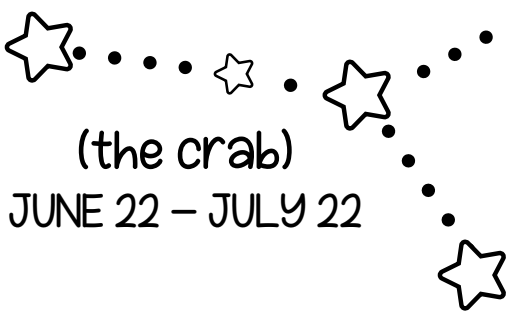

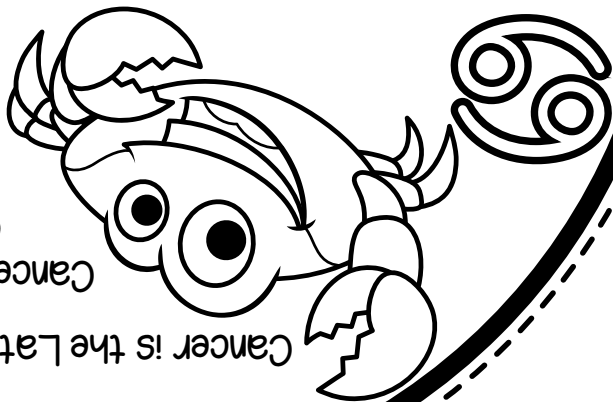

(the crab)

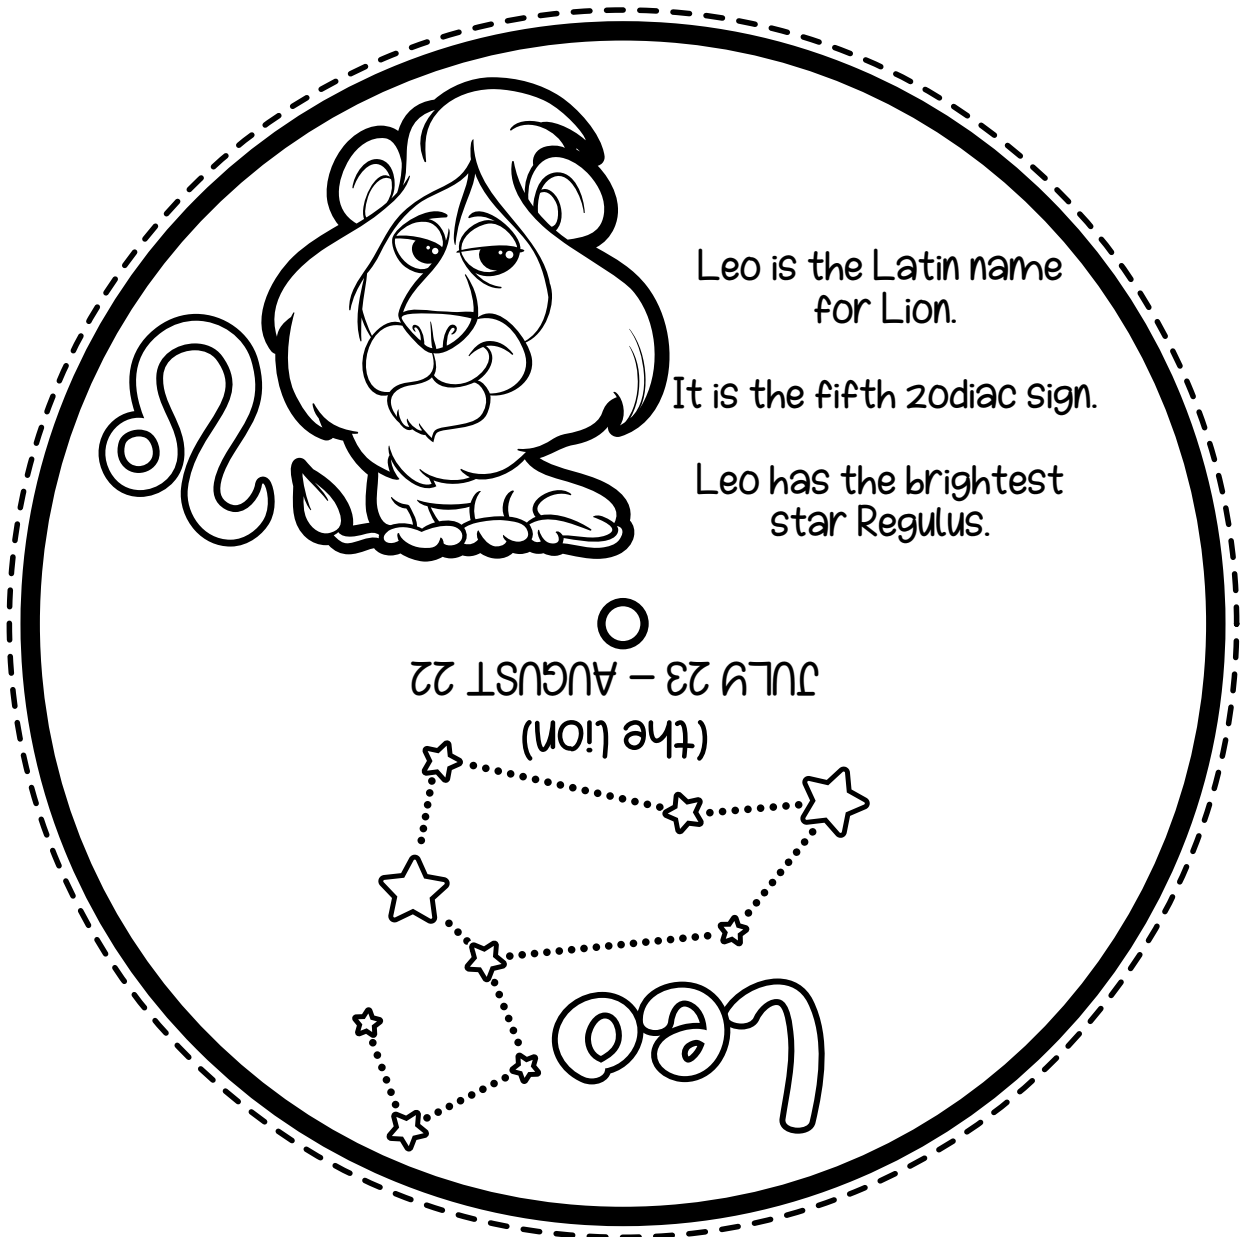

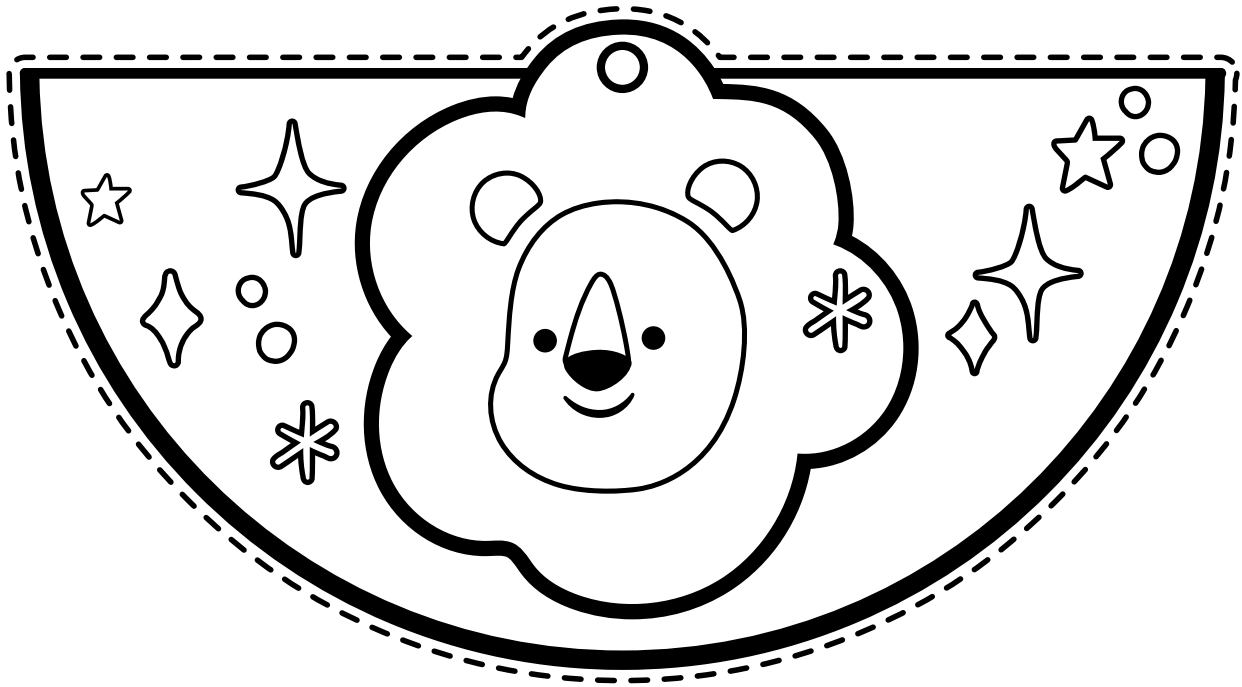

JUNE 22 – JULY 22

Cancer is the Latin name for crab.

Cancer is the fourth sign of the zodiac.

The brightest star in the Cancer constellation is Al Tarif.

Virgo is the Latin name for the maiden.

It is the sixth zodiac sign.

Virgo is the second largest in the sky.

AUGUST 23 – SEPTEMBER 23
(the maiden)

Virgo

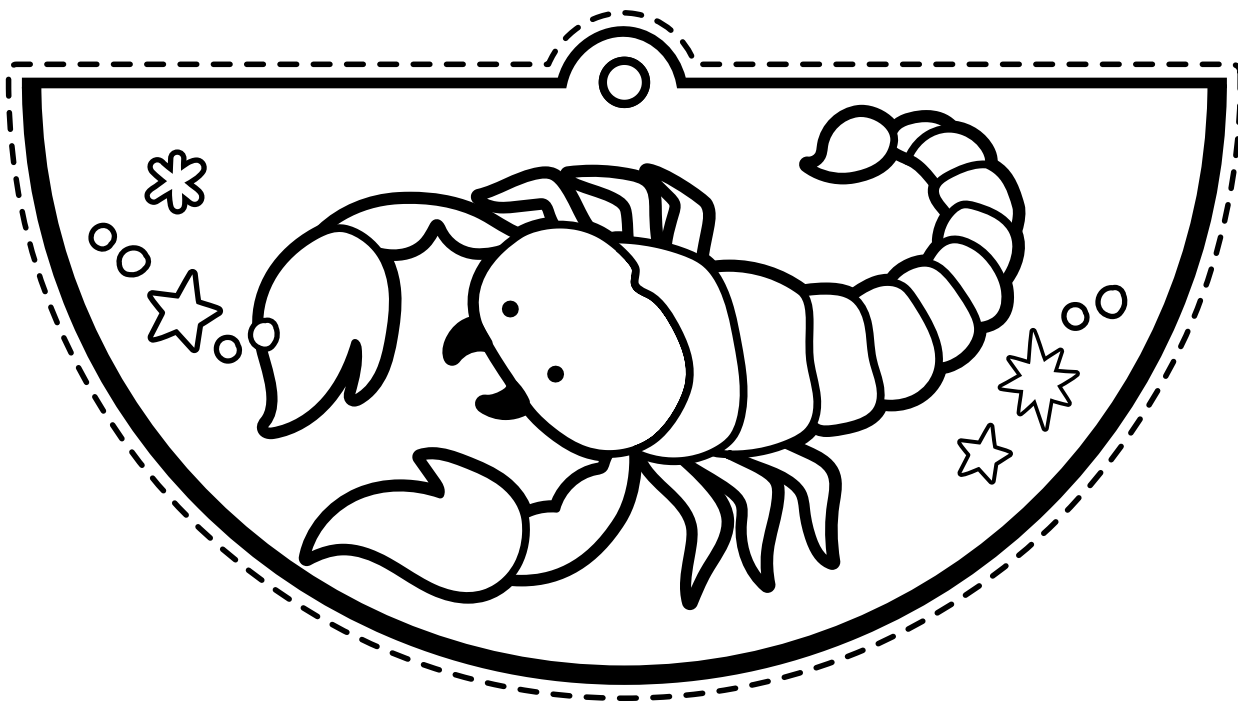

Libra is the Latin name for balance.

It is the seventh zodiac sign.

It is the brightest star in the constellation.

(the weighing scale)
JUNE 22 - JULY 22

Libra

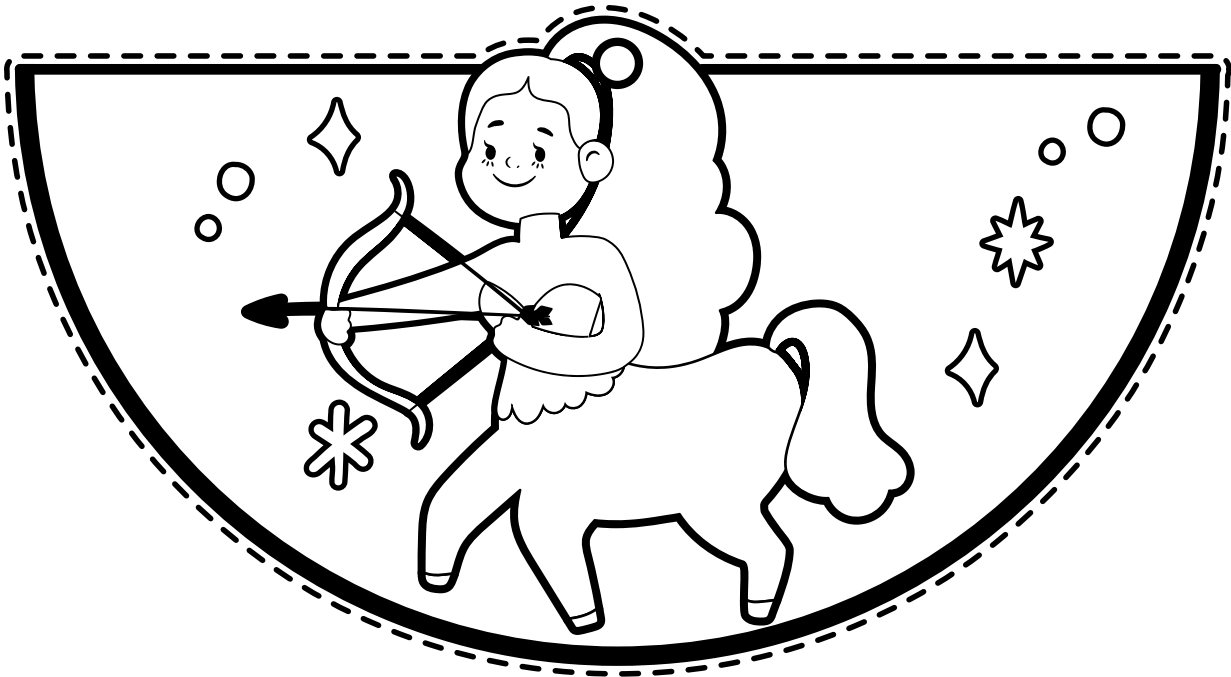

Scorpio is the Latin name for scorpion.

It is the eighth zodiac sign.

It is near the milky way.

OCTOBER 24 - NOVEMBER 21 (the scorpion)

Scorpio

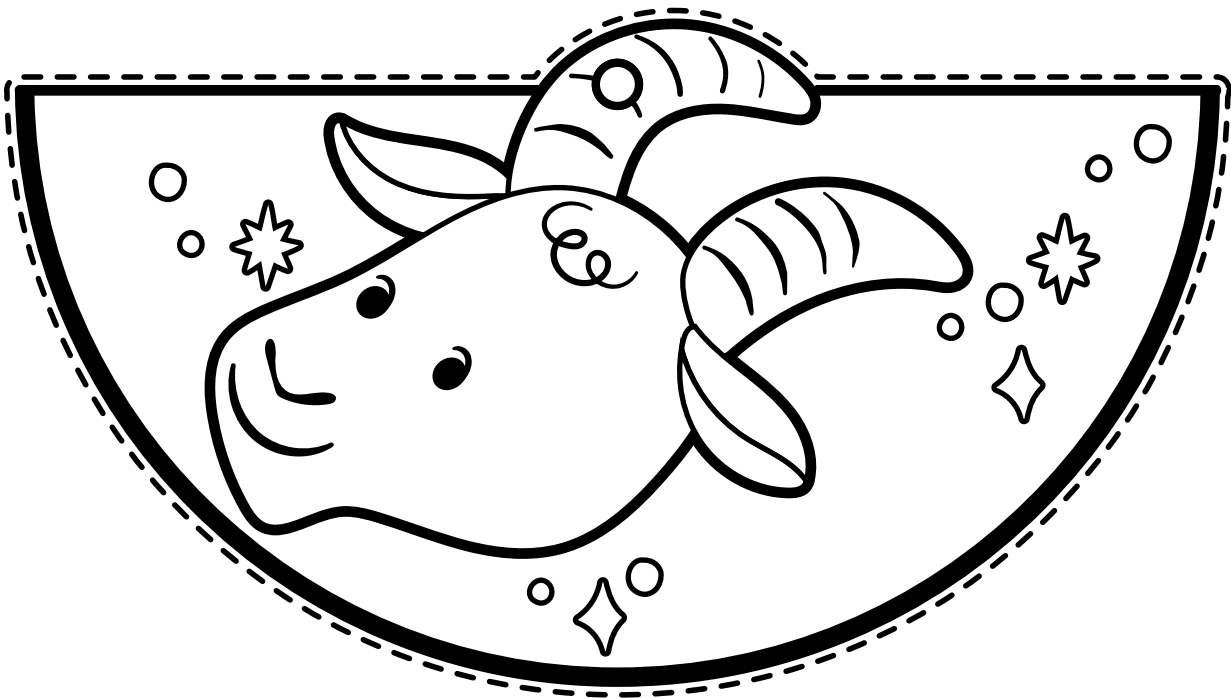

Sagittarius is the Latin name for the archer.

It is the ninth zodiac sign.

Sagittarius has a teapot shape.

NOVEMBER 22 – DECEMBER 21
(the archer)

Sagittarius

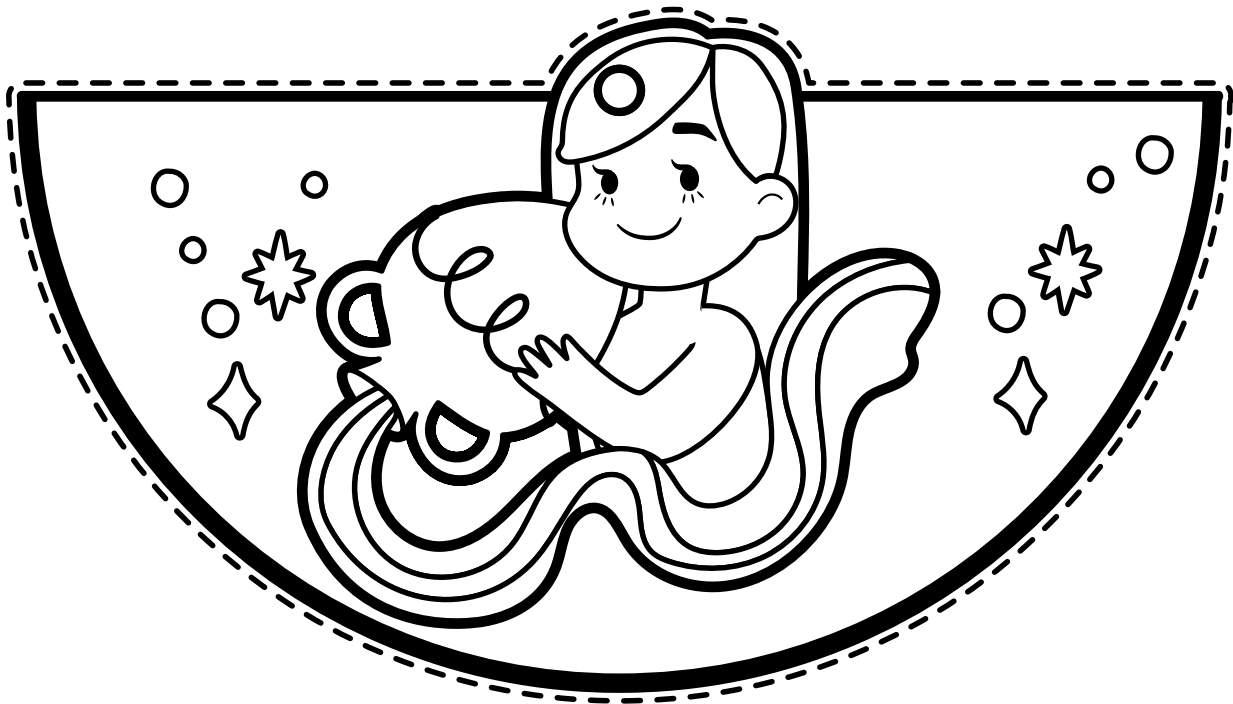

Capricorn is the Latin name for sea goat.

It is the tenth zodiac sign.

Capricorn has five stars.

Capricorn

DECEMBER 21 - JANUARY 20
(the sea goat)

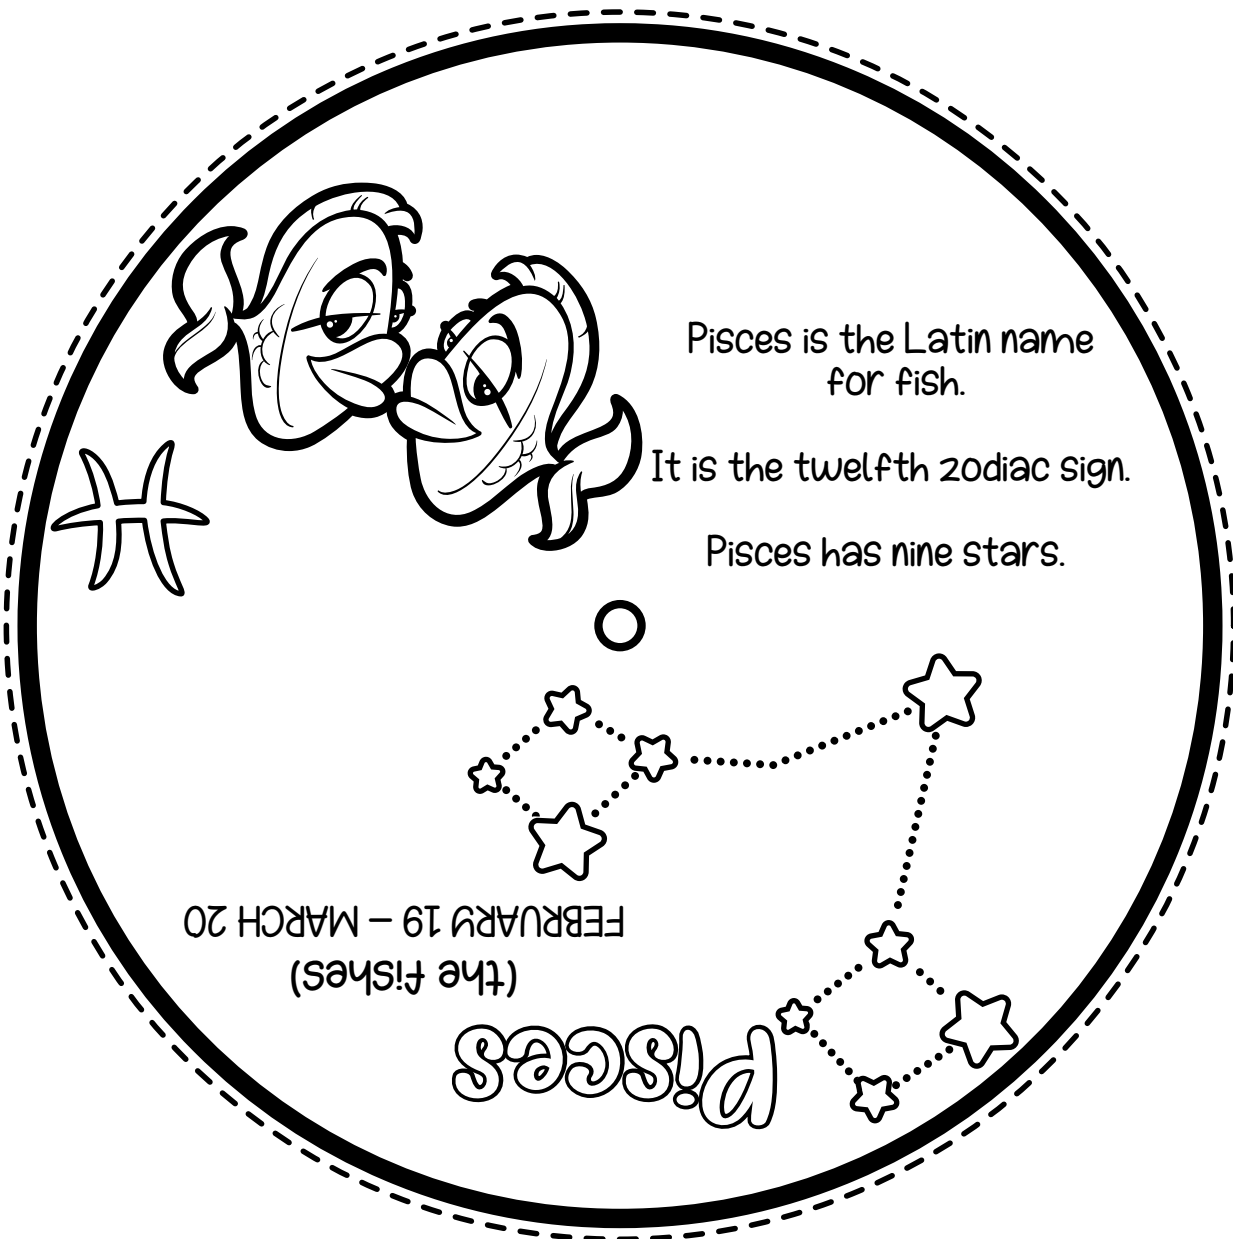

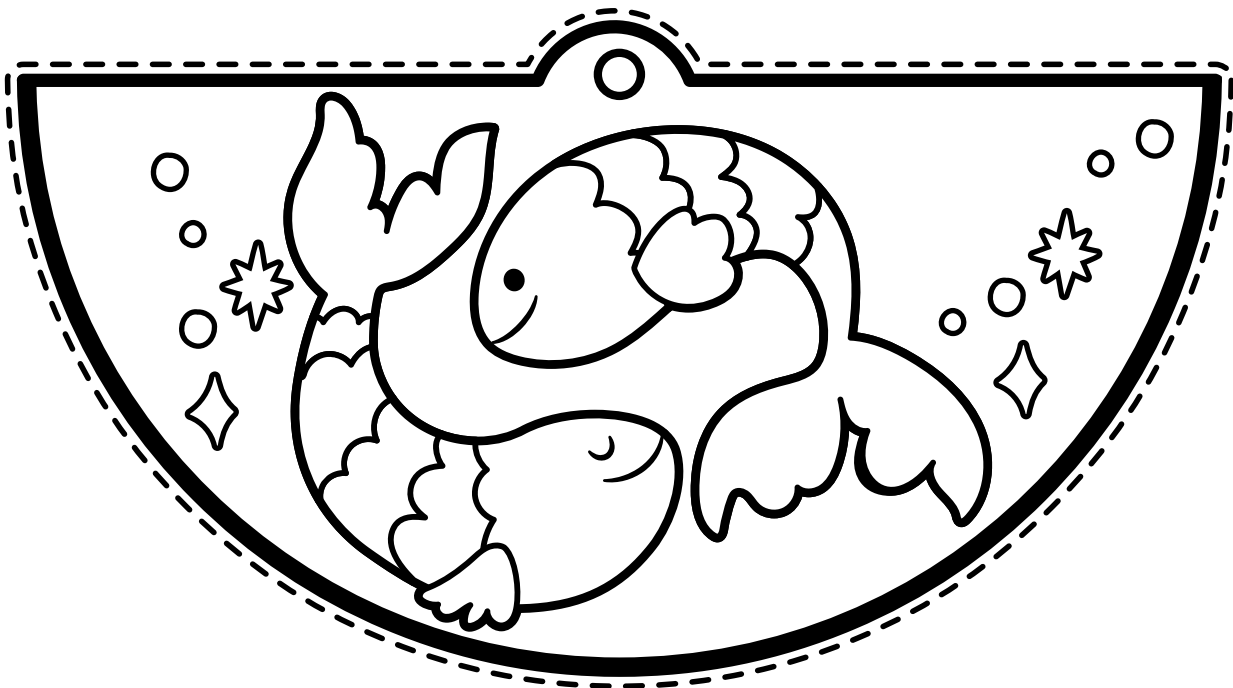

Aquarius is the Latin name for water bearer.

It is the eleventh zodiac sign.

Aquarius has twelve stars.

(the water bearer)
 - JANUARY 20 -
 FEBRUARY 18

Aquarius

Pisces is the Latin name for fish.

It is the twelfth zodiac sign.

Pisces has nine stars.

FEBRUARY 19 - MARCH 20

(the fishes)

Pisces